2. Subject of the Agreement

- 2.1. The present agreement determines the general terms which regulate the responsibilities and rights-obligations of the parties in the process of utilization of bank products/services by the client;
- 2.2. The present agreement provides the following general terms of use of bank products/services:
 - 2.2.1. bank account servicing;
 - 2.2.2. card servicing;
 - 2.2.3. Internet Banking/Mobile Banking;
 - 2.2.4. telephone servicing;
 - 2.2.5. SMS servicing;
 - 2.2.6. automatic transfers/payments;
 - 2.2.7. deposit;
 - 2.2.8. credit products.
 - 2.2.9. E-mail Banking service;
- 2.3. To receive particular services/products outlined in the present agreement, the client shall address the Bank with a respective written application (or use another form determined by the present agreement) by which they confirm that they are familiar, agree with and accept all terms of the present agreement. In the event the client does not use any of the bank products/services, the relevant clause(s) of the indicated product/service shall not be applicable. Relevant terms shall be exercised upon granting of the right to use particular bank products/services.
- 2.4. After reviewing the application of a client, the Bank decides whether to provide the relevant service to that client.
- 2.5. The Bank is authorized to refuse to provide a service to a client without providing grounds for the refusal (unless it is otherwise established by effective legislation).
- 2.6. The Bank is authorized to request the submission of additional information and/or documents from the client for the purpose of making a decision. A client's filling in of an application, and submission of additional documents to the Bank, does not obligate the Bank to provide any of the services to the client envisaged by the present agreement.
- 2.7. Following adoption of the decision envisaged by clause 2.4 of the present agreement, the parties, upon the request of the Bank, may create other supplementary agreements/covenants which shall be an inseparable part of this agreement and which shall outline individual terms of the particular bank product/service as well as additional rights and obligations of the parties;
- 2.8. The terms of the present agreement are applicable to each bank product/service and/or any agreement/covenant processed on the basis/in the scope of the present agreement, taking into account specific features existing for the relevant bank product/services and/or those determined by the individual agreement/covenant.
- 2.9. Agreements/covenants processed with regard to bank products/services, statements and annexes, represent an inseparable part of the present agreement. In case of a discrepancy (discrepancy implies mutually exclusive provisions and does not mean those complementing each other) between the present agreement and a particular agreement/covenant/annex processed on its basis, the priority shall be given to the particular agreement/covenant/annex dealing with the matters which are regulated by such an agreement/covenant.
- 2.10. A confirmation/application issued by a client by means of remote bank service on a bank product/service and/or agreement/covenant terms, as well as an order issued to the Bank through remote media, is equaled to the signature of the client on the relevant agreement/covenant/order, and such statement/agreement/covenant/order shall be deemed as legally binding as of the moment of the Bank's receiving the client's approval via remote bank services. Furthermore, the client acknowledges that the Bank may need to make several transactions to perform an order received via remote bank service to which the client expresses consent.
- 2.11. The Bank and the client are authorized to create any agreement on use/servicing of such bank products which are not envisaged by the present agreement.
- 2.12. The National Bank of Georgia represents the supervisory body of the Bank, address of which is Tbilisi, Georgia, Sanapiro Str. N2, and also, the web page of which is www.nbg.gov.ge.
- 2.13. The National Bank of Georgia is not responsible for the undue performance of obligations undertaken by the Bank.

2.14. From July the 1st, 2020 in accordance with the Law of Georgia on Deposit Insurance System, the amounts on all type of deposits (including current accounts) of all individuals are insured and compensated by the Deposit Insurance Agency within the limit of 15,000 GEL, regardless the number of accounts held in the Bank. The accounts of all individuals in the Bank are insured automatically, without any additional charges. For more information on deposit insurance system, visit web site at: www.diagency.ge.

3. Tariffs

3.1. For the use of the bank products/services outlined in the present agreement, the client is obliged to pay the Bank commission/service fee, the amount of which is determined consistent with the tariffs established by the Bank by the time of performing the transaction and/or providing service and/or according to the individual tariffs determined by the Bank.

3.2. Information on established tariffs and payment regulations is provided on the web page of the Bank www.rebank.ge and represents an inseparable part of the present agreement. The client is obliged, prior to exercising a bank transaction, to become familiar with the tariffs established for relevant transactions/services at the branches/service centers of the Bank and/or on the web page. In the event of a suspension or termination of the transaction by the Bank upon the request of the client, or in case of a termination of any of services by the Bank to the client, the service fee paid to the Bank shall not be reimbursed to the client.

3.3. The Bank is authorized to change the effective tariffs and their payment regulations unilaterally, about which the client shall be preliminarily informed as per the regulations set forth in the present agreement.

4. Bank Account Servicing

4.1. Opening a bank account

4.1.1. In order to perform the bank transactions determined by the present agreement, and to use of bank products, the Bank opens an account(s) for a client. The latter may use one or several bank accounts.

4.1.2. Accounts are opened on the basis of the client's submission of an application and document(s) as established by the legislation and requested by the Bank, for the authenticity of which the client is responsible. The Bank is entitled to request additional information at any time. Submission of additional information does not obligate the Bank to open an account for the client or to provide the relevant service.

4.1.3. Consistent with the regulations and procedures established by the Bank, account(s) may be opened on the basis of a remotely processed application if the client already has an account at the Bank.

4.1.4. If opening an account in a foreign currency, a current account in GEL is opened for the client if the latter does not have an account in the national currency.

4.1.5. The Bank is entitled to accrue interest on amounts placed on the current account(s) of a client opened at the Bank, to an amount determined by the Bank at a given moment. The interest amount is calculated by the end of each day according to the existing balance, and the accrued interest is released each month, by the end of the month. The Bank is authorized, at any time, at its discretion, to change (increase/decrease) or revoke the interest amount, of which the client shall be informed by means of the internet bank and/or email;

4.2. Processing Payments and Other Transactions to the Account

4.2.1. Monetary resources may be placed into the account of the client via non-cash and cash payments.

4.2.2. The write-off of monetary resources from an account(s) by the Bank, as a rule, is exercised upon consent, permission, order or request of the client, according to the regulation set forth by the present agreement and/or legislation.

4.2.3. Reflection of the amount(s) deposited and/or transferred to the account(s) of a client, or transfer of an amount(s) from the client's account, is effected by the Bank no later than on the following banking day of receipt of the relevant order and/or during the term envisaged by the legislation.

4.2.4. The time of receipt of a payment order is the moment the Bank receives the payment order, notwithstanding whether it is initiated by the client or the recipient.

- 4.2.5. After the operational day is over, payment orders received by the Bank from a client shall be considered as received on the following banking day, thus it does not represent an obligation for the Bank to deal with a payment order on the day of its submission.
- 4.2.6. Partial execution of a payment order is not accepted.
- 4.2.7. In order to carry out a payment transaction, an expression of consent is required from the client, which means the client's signing of a payment order or expression of consent by means of the remote bank service (giving the Bank an order to perform a bank transaction through the internet bank and/or other means, or the client's carrying out of the respective transaction is deemed as a payment order). By expressing consent for the respective payment order, the client confirms the accuracy of the data provided in the payment order and the full compliance of the order issued to the Bank with their own will, for which the client shall be accountable.
- 4.2.8. The client is entitled to cancel the payment order issued to the Bank if the transfer has not yet been effected (which means a write-off of the amount from the client's account) and if this does not contradict the essence of commitment for which it was issued or Georgian legislation.
- 4.2.9. The client acknowledges that if the Bank marks the payment order as "payment order is not subject to cancellation or request by the payer," the client is not authorized to request the payment order.
- 4.2.10. The client shall be informed on the receipt, rejection and/or impossibility of performance of the payment order by the Bank in a form/manner determined by the Bank.
- 4.2.11. The Bank is entitled to reject an order and/or refuse to perform an order, if:
- 4.2.11.1. Full identification of the client/provider of the order is not possible;
- 4.2.11.2. The order does not conform with the requirements set forth by the legislation and/or bank regulations and procedures;
- 4.2.11.3. The order contains inaccurate information/data;
- 4.2.11.4. The amount existing in the account to carry out an order, including the commission fee, is insufficient to perform the order, and/or the amount indicated in the order exceeds the limits established by the Bank. The parties agree that the Bank is authorized to carry out the payment order initiated by the client within the limits of the permitted overdraft, if the relevant balance is available;
- 4.2.11.5. The Bank suspects an attempt to perform an illegitimate transaction;
- 4.2.11.6. The funds existing in the account are subject to public law restriction;
- 4.2.11.7. The indicated is envisaged by the legislation or the client has any kind of monetary liability owed to the Bank;
- 4.2.11.8. If there is any other shortcoming/circumstance which makes it impossible to perform the order;
- 4.2.12. A rejected payment order shall not be deemed as accepted for the purposes set forth in clause 4.2.4 and Article 13 of the present agreement.
- 4.2.13. A payment order, to effect its due performance, should include requisites determined by Georgian legislation. Thereby, an electronic payment order, other than legislative requirements, may include other supplementary requisites established by the Bank.
- 4.2.14. The Bank is authorized to exercise non-accepted debiting of amounts from a client's account in the following cases:
- 4.2.14.1. To recover any due payment, any bank service fee and/or penalty/fine owed to the Bank;
- 4.2.14.2. To carry out credit liabilities or arrears owed to the Bank. The client acknowledges that the Bank is not obliged to write-off amounts without the order of the client for the purpose of covering the arrears of the client;
- 4.2.14.3. To recover amount(s) transferred by mistake and/or suspicions amount(s) in violation of the requirements of the legislation;
- 4.2.14.4. On occasions envisaged by the effective legislation and/or agreement, covenant and/or other document created between the client and the Bank (for example: bail, collection order);
- 4.2.14.5. In case of a collection order, for the purpose of covering a collection order, the Bank is obliged, if there is an insufficient amount of the collection order currency in the account, without consent from the client, to convert the currency from the other account(s) of the client in the currency of the collection order, at the exchange rate established by the National Bank on the date of payment. A commission fee for carrying out the collection order (transfer of commission fee, conversion of commission fee) is determined by the tariffs established by the Bank.

- 4.2.15. If there is any kind of public law restriction registered to the name of the client at the Bank, and at the same time the client uses an overdraft and/or the credit card, public law restriction shall apply to the amount which is placed on the respective overdraft and/or credit card account, after registering the public law restriction.
- 4.2.16. If the amount payable, as determined by clause 4.2.14 (other than clause 4.2.14.5), and the amount accrued on the account are in different currencies, the Bank shall make a conversion at the commercial exchange rate existing at the Bank on the date of payment and shall exercise a non-accepted write-off of the cost of conversion (if any) service from the account of the client.
- 4.2.17. A cash deposit or withdrawal transaction from the account is effected by means of an incoming/outgoing cash order.
- 4.2.18. When exchanging currencies, it is possible to purchase one currency with the other from the current account, provided that there is a sufficient amount for performing such a transaction in the current account.
- 4.2.19. The currency shall be exchanged at the commercial or special rate established by the Bank by the time of the currency exchange.
- 4.2.20. The client may obtain information on currency exchange rates on the web page of the Bank www.rebank.ge.
- 4.3. Payroll Project/Program
- 4.3.1. To receive a service envisaged by the payroll project, the client addresses the bank with an application consistent with clause 2.3 of the present agreement.
- 4.3.2. Service tariffs and/or terms under the payroll project are determined on the basis of the respective annex, which represents an integral part of the present agreement.
- 4.3.3. The client shall, in the form of monthly average revenues, transfer an amount no less than 250 (two hundred fifty) GEL to the payroll account. Otherwise, the bank is authorized to apply measures envisaged in clauses 4.3.10 and 4.3.11.
- 4.3.4. The client acknowledges that the overdraft can be permitted to the payroll account on the basis of an application submitted by the client to the Bank, after which the Bank will make the respective decision and conclude the respective overdraft agreement between the Bank and the client.
- 4.3.5. The client should regularly transfer their salary (also, premium, business trip amounts and other allowances) to the present payroll account.
- 4.3.6. The client should, at least 90 (ninety) calendar days in advance, notify the Bank in writing of a full or partial termination of the payroll project/transfer to another bank. Furthermore, in the event the client terminates the payroll project service within 6 months after the start date, the client should, upon request of the Bank, fully remunerate the cost of the payroll card(s) at the standard tariff. The Bank is authorized for this purpose to deduct unilaterally respective amount from the client's account(s).
- 4.3.7. In case of a breach of the liabilities and presence of circumstances set forth in clause 4.3.5, 4.3.6. and 4.3.10 of the present agreement, the client is obliged to reimburse the Bank for generated indebtedness (including overdraft and accrued interest thereto) and/or damage incurred as a result of the breach of the indicated liability and/or cost of the payroll card at the standard tariff. The Bank is authorized, for this purpose, to deduct the respective amount unilaterally from the client's account(s).
- 4.3.8. Of the amount paid by the client by means of the payroll card, the Bank shall return part of the amount spent (cash-back) to the client, of which the client shall be notified by SMS. Such amounts shall be accumulated during one month and shall be fully transferred to the client's payroll account on the last banking day of the month. If the last banking day of the month is a non-working day, the appropriate amount will be transferred the following working day. If closing the account, the cash-back accumulated during the respective month shall not be transferred to the client.
- 4.3.9. The Bank is authorized to amend the terms of the payroll project unilaterally, of which the client shall be informed according to the rule determined by the present agreement.
- 4.3.10. The Bank is authorized, without prior written notification of the client, to terminate the payroll project service if, for 60 (sixty) days in succession, the amount is not transferred to the client's payroll program from the effective date, or if the transfer amount is less than indicated in clause 4.3.3.
- 4.3.11. In case of a breach/invalidation/termination of the payroll project terms, the Bank is authorized to cancel the beneficial tariffs (if any) and provide the client service at the standard tariffs existing at the Bank.

4¹. Nominee Ownership Account

- 4¹.1. The bank may open a nominee ownership joint account and/or a nominee ownership segregated account (hereinafter - a nominee ownership account) for a client, based on the client's request and in accordance with Georgian legislation. The account can be opened in the form of a current and/or deposit account.
- 4¹.2. Only the client's funds, which the nominee account holder possesses and manages in accordance with Georgian legislation, can be placed in and/or transferred from the nominee ownership account, separately from their own funds.
- 4¹.3. At the bank's request, the nominee account holder is obliged to provide the bank with information about its clients and/or their beneficial owners in accordance with the bank's requirements.
- 4¹.4. The nominee account holder is obliged to ensure the processing of information (including personal data) about its clients and beneficial owners in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations (including the requirements of the Personal Data Protection Law). The nominee account holder must take appropriate security measures to protect such data from unauthorized access, use, alteration, or destruction. The provision of information about the nominee account holder's clients and/or their beneficial owners (including personal data) to the bank must be carried out in full compliance with the requirements of the Personal Data Protection Law. The bank is exempt from any responsibility and/or obligation to compensate for damages caused by the nominee account holder's violation of the requirements of the Personal Data Protection Law. In addition, the nominee account holder is obliged to compensate the bank for any damage/loss caused by the nominee account holder's violation of the requirements of the Personal Data Protection Law.
- 4¹.5. The nominee account holder is responsible for the content and purpose of the transactions carried out on the nominee ownership account.
- 4¹.6. It is prohibited to manage the funds in the nominee ownership account directly based on the instructions provided by the nominee account holder's client.
- 4¹.7. The nominee ownership account may be transferred to another person based on the decision of an authorized body provided for by Georgian legislation.
- 4¹.8. The nominee account holder is obliged to comply with the terms of this agreement and the requirements of applicable local and international laws, subordinate acts, regulations, international agreements, orders, and instructions of the National Bank of Georgia. If the nominee account holder does not properly fulfill or violates the requirements of the agreement or applicable legislation, it is obliged to fully compensate the bank for any direct and/or indirect damage/loss (including sanctions and/or fines) caused by improper performance, non-performance, or violation of the requirements of the agreement and/or applicable legislation.
- 4¹.9. The standard tariffs set by the bank apply to the nominee ownership account.

5. Card Servicing

5.1. Description of Service

- 5.1.1. Card servicing means exercising bank transactions by means of the VISA or Mastercard issued by the Bank by the client holding card account or by the person nominated in writing by the client (hereafter both referred to as the "card holder").
- 5.1.2. The type of card is determined by the signed application of the client related to each particular card product, representing an inseparable part of the present agreement.
- 5.1.3. To process card transactions, the Bank shall open the relevant card account(s). The issuance of several cards to one card account, and one card to several accounts, is permitted.
- 5.1.3¹ The Transactions admitted to be performed by the Card, within the terms established by the corresponding payment system, can be online authorized transactions (operation when the authorization of the transaction is held locally, by receiving confirmation from the issuing bank), transactions with offline authorisation (operation which is authorized without confirmation of issuing bank and in case of which overspending can take place on the account), automatically Repeated (Recurrent) transactions (periodic payment of the service or/and good's fee, when the Card payment order of the mentioned fee is initiated by the seller/service provider based on a preliminary consent of the Card holder).

- 5.1.4. The Bank produces the card on the basis of the respective application filled out by a client and gives it to the client for use together with the personal identification code (pin code). Pin codes are delivered in a sealed envelope or via SMS. The Personal Identification code (PIN-code) can be changed through the client's Internet banking, mobile banking, as well as through an ATM and/or a service center, in accordance with the rules established by the bank.
- 5.1.5. The international payment system regulations and terms stipulated by Georgian legislation and the present agreement are applicable to card servicing.
- 5.1.6. If the card holder does not accept the card within 3 (three) months of the card being produced, the card is subject to cancellation. The commission fee paid for producing or servicing the card (if any) shall not be reimbursed to the card holder.
- 5.1.7. The card usage period shall be determined according to the term indicated on the card. The effective term of the card expires after the last day of the relevant month of the year indicated on the card passes.
- 5.1.8. The card holder is the person to whom the card is issued (this could be the client [account holder] or a person nominated by the client). - 5.3.6. The amount from the particular currency account of the multi-currency account shall be utilized within the limits of the approved overdraft (if any) and only after such a limit is exhausted shall the relevant amount be looked for in the other currency account.

5.4. Submitting Claims

- 5.4.1. The client is entitled to appeal the payment transactions from their card account and other inaccuracies within 75 (seventy five) or 120 (one hundred and twenty) calendar days after performing a payment transaction, consistent with the payment system regulations. After expiry of the indicated term, the transaction shall be deemed as approved by the client and claims to return the amount shall not be accepted. A client's claiming any transaction does not imply the unconditional obligation of the Bank to reimburse the client the damage incurred as a result of the indicated transactions. Each occasion of a client's appealing a transaction shall be reviewed individually, taking into consideration the regulations established by the respective payment system and the legislation of Georgia.
- 5.4.1¹ The claimant (client) may submit verbal, written and/or electronic claim regarding the transactions held at the card account using card instrument. When submitting verbal and/or electronic claim, if requested by the bank, the client shall additionally submit the claim in written/material form, within one banking day after receiving the claim. For verbal claim the client may address JSC "Pasha Bank Georgia" telephone service center – contact center (+995 322) 22 25 25. Standard written form of the claim is available at the bank branches and service centers. Claim can be submitted electronically through internet banking or the bank's web page (www.rebank.ge). Maximum term for review of the claim submitted by the client shall be no later than 15 (fifteen) working days after the claimant's submission and his/her identification. Furthermore, if due to extraordinary and objective circumstances not attributed to the bank the claim cannot be reviewed in 15 (fifteen) working days and decision is not made, the bank shall notify the client the substantiated reason of delay and the timelines of claim hearing and resolution. In case of extraordinary and objective circumstances the term of claim resolution and notification to the client shall not exceed 35 (thirty five) working days after acceptance of the claim.
- 5.4.1² Commensurate with the regulation set forth in clause 5.4.1¹ of the present agreement, the department of plastic cards and Customer Experience Management Department of JSC "Pasha Bank Georgia" shall review claims. The client shall be notified on the decision regarding the claim promptly in writing or electronically (as agreed with the client). Information regarding claim hearing process can be obtained at any branch/service centers and/or by means of remote channels. Communication between the client and the bank regarding the claim shall be held at the following email address: customercare@pashabank.ge.
- 5.4.1³ Commensurate with the regulation set forth by clause 5.4.1¹ of the present agreement, when submitting the claim, the client shall provide the bank exhaustive information regarding the subject card transaction – including volume of transaction, currency, time and location, also shall provide all documents (if any) which are related to the claimed card transaction and which may affect adoption of the decision by the bank.

- 5.4.2. The client is committed, if requested by the Bank, to pay additional costs for the investigation of a problem established by the Bank in the payment system.
- 5.4.3. In case of a positive resolution of the claimed amount, the amount shall be reflected in the card account of the client no less than 45 days and not exceeding 90 days after submission of the claim.

5.5. Suspension and Termination of Card Validity

5.5.1. The Bank is entitled to block both the main and supplementary card and/or card account and/or suspend payment operations in the event that:

- 5.5.1.1. The client indicated inaccurate information in the application;
- 5.5.1.2. There is a suspicion that the card has been used illegitimately, or an un-sanctioned and/or illegitimate transaction is occurring and/or has occurred on the card account;
- 5.5.1.3. It appears that illegitimate transactions have been performed with the card, and information evidencing illegitimate use of the card has been received from the international payment system;
- 5.5.1.4. The scope of transaction exceeds the money withdrawal or settlement limits established for the client's card, or the transaction contradicts the regulations established by the present or international payment system;
- 5.5.1.5. Any of the terms stipulated by the present agreement or card usage regulations have been breached by the card holder.

5.5.2. In case of entering a PIN code incorrectly at an ATM three times, the card is automatically blocked due to the expiration of the daily limit of entering PIN code attempts.

5.5.3. A card can be suspended in case the card holder wishes or if the card is lost or stolen. The card holder shall, in the event of loss or stealing of a card/card data, mobile, accessories or obtaining information on unauthorized transaction, loss of the card or stealing, immediately notify the bank in writing or by telephone (+995 322 22 25 25). On the other hand, the bank is obliged to ensure suspension of the card, by entering the card data, with the respective method determined by the card holder:

- a. on the local stop-list, which will block the card within maximum 1 (one) banking day, only allowing transactions authorized by the Bank.
- b. on the international stop list, which will block the card in the international payment system within a maximum 14 (fourteen) banking days.

5.5.4. When notifying the Bank about the card blockage by telephone, the client is obliged, no later than the following banking day, to submit a written application to the Bank, or by means of the internet bank submit an application on lost/stolen cards, by indicating the relevant type of stop-list (local, international). Otherwise, the Bank is authorized to remove the card from the international stop-list and consequently the client shall be responsible for any non-sanctioned transaction made on the card account.

5.5.5. The Bank, at the expense of the client, shall ensure the card is entered on the stop-list referred to in the application. The card holder is obliged to pay the commission fee for entering the card on the international stop-list.

5.5.6. The client shall bear responsibility for any transaction performed prior to exercising the action set forth in clause 5.5.3 of the present agreement.

5.5.7. The Bank is entitled to close the card account:

5.5.7.1. If the Bank cancels the bank product, about which it shall notify the client;

5.5.7.2. In cases envisaged by clause 5.5.1 of the present agreement and/or other clauses of the agreement.

5¹. Digital wallet and digital card services

5¹.1 Apple Wallet

5¹.1.1 The present chapter regulates rules and terms on adding cards emitted by the bank to Apple Wallet and terms on making settlements with the added cards by the client and/or by the additional cardholder;

5¹.1.2 Terms used in the present chapter shall have the following meanings:

- 5¹.1.2.1 Apple – legal entity registered in the USA (Apple Inc. www.apple.com) which manufactures and sells various electronic devices by means of which, the client/additional card holder has the capability to use Apple Wallet and make settlements with the card.
- 5¹.1.2.2 Apple Pay /Apple Wallet / electronic wallet – mobile/digital payment system/service/application created by Apple and integrated in Apple devices. Apple Pay/Apple Wallet, using the added cards, allows the customer to make contactless payments or withdraw cash from ATM.
- 5¹.1.2.3 Apple device/device – devices manufactured by Apple - iPhone, Apple Watch, iPad, MacBook and/or any other device, in which Apple Pay/Apple Wallet is integrated.
- 5¹.1.2.4 Authentication – process, which requires using the authentication data for the purposes of making payments/transactions by the added card in the Apple Wallet.
- 5¹.1.2.5 Authentication data – fingerprint of the client (Touch ID), face ID or Passcode, one of which should be used for using Apple Wallet while making transactions and have to be entered by the client or the additional card holder prior to each transaction. Client/additional card holder acknowledges that the bank does not have access to such data, furthermore, entering/using authentication data by the client or additional card holder is deemed as confirmation of the payment transaction. Those data which are added to the device as the authentication data but do not belong to the client or to the additional card holder are assumed as payment transaction confirmation too (among them payment by the client/additional card holder or withdrawal).
- 5¹.1.3 Terms on adding cards to the Apple Wallet
- 5¹.1.3.1 The client or the additional card holder is authorized to include/add his/her card to its own Apple device, provided that:
- 5¹.1.3.1.1 The client or additional card holder is identified by the bank in a due manner;
- 5¹.1.3.1.2 There is no restriction to the card and/or card account that is being added to Apple Wallet, which excludes possibility on making payments with the electronic wallet and/or cash withdrawal;
- 5¹.1.3.2 When adding card to the Apple Wallet, the client or additional card holder undergoes verification, which can be done through one of the following methods, in particular:
- 5¹.1.3.2.1 Card may be added to the Apple Wallet by using one time verification code, which is sent to the client or additional cardholder to their registered mobile number and by filling such code in the system while adding the card to the Apple Wallet.
- 5¹.1.3.2.2 Card may be added to the Apple Wallet with help of the Contact Centre, but only in case if the client/additional cardholder is properly verified as per terms established.
- 5¹.1.3.3 After the client/additional card holder successfully adds card/additional card to the Apple Wallet – he/she will be authorized to make transactions using card accounts. Both, contactless payments and cash withdrawal is permitted using card added to Apple Wallet, in particular:
- 5¹.1.3.3.1 Contactless payments can be made using one of the authentication data and by placing the Apple device close to the contactless payment terminal. Contactless payment using authentication data is possible through applications and web pages with Apple Pay logo as well. In addition, the client understands that when making settlements through Apple Wallet, card pin code is not required.
- 5¹.1.3.3.2 By using Apple Wallet and one of the authentication data, it is possible to withdraw cash by placing Apple device close to the ATM (if the ATM has contactless connection system) and by entering card's pin code.
- 5¹.1.3.4 It is possible to add several cards to one device, also it is possible to add the same card in the various devices. Furthermore, the client/additional card holder acknowledges that the bank and/or the Apple, are authorized to restrict the number of cards to be added to single device, as well as the number of devices, to which one and the same card can be added. The client/additional card holder may become familiar with the restrictions imposed by the Apple at the web page www.apple.com, information on restrictions imposed by the bank are available at the bank's web page – www.rebank.ge or at the bank's contact center number (+995 32) 222 25 25.
- 5¹.1.3.5 The client acknowledges that he/she can delete the card from Apple Wallet at any time. Also, it is possible to block the card added to Apple Wallet without blocking the card itself (without blocking the possibility of payment out of the scope of Apple Wallet), for which, the client may address the Bank's branches and/or call bank's contact center number (+995 32) 222 25 25.

5¹.1.3.6 The client acknowledges that only the information about transactions made through the Apple Wallet are available in the Apple Wallet. Furthermore, while using Apple Wallet the client may not see remaining balances on the proper accounts or full information on transactions made using his/her card. Detailed information regarding the transactions is available at the mobile bank and internet banking (address: www.rebanking.ge), for receiving statement, the client may address bank branches and/or call the Bank's Contact Center at number (+995 32) 222 25 25.

5¹.1.3.7 The client acknowledges that he/she may receive notifications on transactions made through the Apple Wallet from the Apple Wallet (push notifications) as well as from the Bank.

5¹.1.4 Rights and Obligations of the Parties

5¹.1.4.1 Client/additional card holder must regularly become familiar and observe terms on use and safety of Apple Wallet developed by the Bank and Apple do not share device passcode with the third parties and/or add data of third parties to the device as an authentication data and in such case, must promptly delete added data and/or change the passcode/password. For the purposes of this clause, the client and the additional card holder additionally acknowledge that any third party will be able to make payments through their Apple Wallet if such person has the access to Apple device, has the passcode and/or his/her data (Touch ID/Face ID) are added to the device as authentication data. Sharing passcode/password with the third parties and/or adding third parties' data as authentication data – may be detrimental to the card holder.

5¹.1.4.2 When adding a card to the Apple Wallet, the client/additional card holder must ensure that:

5¹.1.4.2.1 Card use is only possible by using authentication data of the card holder himself/herself (the person to whom the card is registered at the bank);

5¹.1.4.2.2 Device is available only for the card holder;

5¹.1.4.2.3 Password (passcode) which allows access to device and making further settlements with the electronic wallet:

5¹.1.4.2.3.1 Is not shared and/or otherwise become available in any form to the third parties;

5¹.1.4.2.3.2 Is stored confidentially;

5¹.1.4.2.3.3 A complex password is used, which is impossible to detect or is not easily detected and/or guessed;

5¹.1.4.2.4 Device is not left unattended and/or unlocked;

5¹.1.4.3 The client/additional card holder must:

5¹.1.4.3.1 Promptly notify the bank on loss/theft of Apple device(s);

5¹.1.4.3.2 Promptly notify the bank on doubt if the customer believes that his/her device and/or card data entered in the electronic devices have been compromised by unauthorized person.

5¹.1.4.3.3 Promptly notify the bank on unexpected termination in the Apple device servicing which raises doubts;

5¹.1.4.3.4 Delete the card from Apple Wallet and card associated data, if transferring ownership on the device in which the card is added to the third parties or transferring only for temporary use

5¹.1.4.4 Based on the information received from the client/ requested by the client and/or at own discretion (following banks' regulations and procedures) consistent with the card servicing regulations stipulated by the present agreement and the requirements envisaged by the present clause, the bank is authorized/obliged to block the card, additional card, card account and/or restrict the opportunity of making payments with the card added to Apple Wallet, if:

5¹.1.4.4.1 The bank has a reasonable doubt regarding fraud, the request of the client is submitted and/or the client has notified the bank on one of the circumstances outlined in clause 5¹.1.4.3;

5¹.1.4.4.2 The client/additional card holder, when using Apple Wallet, breaches any of the terms established by the Apple regulations and the present agreement;

5¹.1.4.4.3 The card/additional card and/or card account is blocked, validity of card/additional card is suspended and/or their effective term expires;

5¹.1.4.4.4 Request of the Apple and/or respective payment system is submitted;

5¹.1.4.4.5 Agreement between the bank and Apple is terminated regarding the electronic wallet servicing;

5¹.1.4.4.6 Other circumstances envisaged by the legislation occur;

5^{1.1.5} Collection of information and security

5^{1.1.5.1} Client acknowledges and confirms that the bank is authorized to share to Apple client's/additional card holder's personal information stored at the bank to the extent necessary for proper use of Apple Wallet, provided that, the confidentiality of shared information shall be observed.

5^{1.1.5.2} Client acknowledges and confirms that the bank is authorized to collect and process information associated with the client's device (including but not limited to used application, devices, device model, device's operative system, IP address and etc.) for the purposes of providing proper services (making settlements as established etc.), to protect the client/additional card holder from loss of data, fraud and/or any other risks. Also, for purposes mentioned and in a due capacity, the bank is authorized to exchange information with Apple, provided that the confidentiality of such information will be guaranteed.

5^{1.1.6} Other terms

5^{1.1.6.1} Client acknowledges that the bank is not responsible for malfunctioning of Apple device and/or Apple Wallet and the liabilities of the bank are limited to providing respective information to Apple, unless the cause of above indicated malfunctioning is not attributed to the bank.

5^{1.1.6.2} The bank is not responsible for the damages/loss incurred to the client as a result of use of Apple Wallet, if it is caused by the unlawful actions of the client, breach of the terms of the present agreement and/or terms and conditions of the Apple.

5^{1.1.6.3} When making settlements with the card added to Apple Wallet – the bank may impose additional commission fee(s), furthermore, the client envisages that the service commission fee(s) may also be imposed by the client's mobile operators (SMS notification cost etc.) and/or by Apple itself, which are determined independently from the bank and the bank does not make decision in this regard.

5^{1.1.6.4} Client/additional card holder acknowledges that, consistent with the context, terms and conditions established by the present agreement on use of bank accounts (card account(s)) and cards are fully applicable to the transactions performed by the card added to the Apple Wallet and Apple Wallet transactions (among them cash withdrawal at ATM using Apple Wallet). In case of inconsistency with the terms set forth in the present chapter and the terms on use of bank accounts and cars, the terms established by the present chapter shall prevail.

5^{1.1.6.5} The client acknowledges that he/she has become familiar with terms and conditions, including terms on confidentiality set by the Apple at the web-page - <https://support.apple.com/apple-pay>.

* Apple and Apple Pay, also any other product of Apple, are registered trademarks of Apple in USA and in the other countries. Information on registered trademarks of Apple is available at web-page - <https://www.apple.com/legal/intellectual-property/trademark/appletmlist.html>.

5^{1.2}. Services with Google Wallet

5^{1.2.1}. This chapter regulates the terms and conditions of adding bank-issued cards to Google Wallet by the client and/or additional card holder and making payments with the added cards.

5^{1.2.2} The terms used in this chapter have the following meaning:

5^{1.2.2.1} Google - a legal entity registered in the United States of America (Google LLC, www.google.com), which provides technical support for various electronic devices and through which the client/additional cardholder has the opportunity to use Google Wallet and make card payments.

5^{1.2.2.2} Google Pay /Google Wallet / Electronic Wallet - a mobile/digital payment system/service/application developed by Google and integrated into Android devices. Google Pay / Google Wallet, using the cards added to it, allows the user to make contactless payments or withdraw money from an ATM (if the ATM supports contactless payment).

5^{1.2.2.3} Google device/device - devices manufactured by Google and/or any other device in which Google Pay/Google Wallet is integrated and/or can be recorded.

5^{1.2.2.4} Authentication - the process that requires the use of authentication data by the client in order to enable payment with the card added to Google Wallet.

5^{1.2.2.5} Authentication data - the customer's fingerprint (Touch ID), face image (Face ID) or passcode (Passcode), the use of one of which is necessary to carry out a transaction when using Google Wallet, and which the customer or additional cardholder is required to enter each Before making a transaction. The client/additional cardholder assumes that the bank does not have access to this data, and the entry/use of authentication data by the client or additional cardholder is considered as confirmation of the payment operation. Data added to the device as authentication data, but not belonging to the client or additional cardholder, are also considered as confirmation of a payment operation (including a payment or cashout operation by the client/additional cardholder).

5¹.2.3 Terms and conditions for adding a card to Google Wallet

5¹.2.3.1 The customer or additional card holder is entitled to activate/add his/her card to his/her own Google device and/or device that supports Google Pay/Google Wallet, provided that:

5¹.2.3.1.1 The client or additional card holder is identified by the bank in a proper manner;

5¹.2.3.1.2 there are no restrictions of any kind registered on the card and/or card account that is added to Google Wallet, which would prevent making payments and/or cashing out with the electronic wallet;

5¹.2.3.2 When adding a card to Google Wallet, the customer or additional cardholder undergoes verification, which can be performed using one of the following methods, namely:

5¹.2.3.2.1 The card can be added to the electronic wallet using a one-time verification code, which is provided to the client or additional card holder on the mobile phone number registered in the bank and which must be entered by the client or additional card holder when adding the card to the electronic wallet;5¹.2.3.2.2 The card can be added to the electronic wallet with the help of the bank's contact center and only if the user passes the established verification procedure in a proper manner;

5¹.2.3.3 Once the Customer/Add-on Cardholder has successfully added the Card/Add-on Card to Google Wallet - he/she will be authorized to conduct transactions using the Card Accounts. Using the card added to Google Wallet, it is possible to carry out contactless transactions, namely:

5¹.2.3.3.1 Contactless payment can be made by using one of the authentication credentials and placing a Google device and/or a device that supports Google Pay/Google Wallet near the contactless payment terminal. Contactless payment using one of the authentication data can also be made in applications and websites that display the Google Pay logo. In addition, the Customer agrees that the card's PIN code will not be requested when paying with Google Wallet, unless the terminal configuration may require the use of a PIN code.

5¹.2.3.3.2 Using Google Wallet and one of the authentication credentials, it is possible to withdraw money by placing a Google device and/or a device that supports Google Pay/Google Wallet with an ATM (if the ATM has contactless payment functionality) and by entering the PIN code of the card.

5¹.2.3.4 It is allowed to add several different cards to one device, and it is also allowed to add the same card to different devices. However, the Customer/Additional Cardholder acknowledges that both the Bank and Google have the right to limit the number of cards that can be added to a single device, as well as the number of devices to which the same card can be added. The client/additional card holder can learn about the restrictions imposed by Google and other necessary information on the website - <https://support.google.com/googlepay/?hl=en#topic=12369512> , and information about the restrictions imposed by the bank can be obtained On the bank's website - www.rebank.ge or in the bank's contact center at (+995 32) 222 25 25.

5¹.2.3.5 The Client acknowledges that it is possible to delete the Card from Google Wallet at any time. It is also possible to block the digital card (DPAN) added to Google Wallet, so that the physical card (FPAN) is not blocked (the ability to make payments outside of Google Wallet is not blocked), for which the client can apply to the bank branches and/or contact the bank's contact to the center at (+995 32) 222 25 25.

5¹.2.3.6 The customer considers that in Google Wallet it is possible to receive information about transactions carried out with Google Wallet. However, when using Google Wallet, the client will not be able to see complete information about the transactions made with his card and the balances on the card accounts. The client can see detailed information about the transactions carried out in the mobile and internet bank (address - www.rebanking.ge), contact the bank's branches and/or contact the bank's contact center at (+995 32) 222 25 25 to get a statement.

5¹.2.3.7 The customer considers that he may receive automatic notifications generated by Google Wallet itself (so-called push notifications), as well as notifications from the bank, about the transactions carried out with Google Wallet.

5¹.2.4 Rights and Obligations of the Parties

5¹.2.4.1 The client/additional cardholder is obliged to regularly familiarize himself with and follow the rules for using Google Wallet developed by the bank and Google, as well as not to allow the passcode of the device to be transferred to third parties and/or to add third party data to the device as authentication data. and, if any, is obliged to immediately delete the added data and/or change the passcode/password. For purposes of this clause, the Customer and Additional Cardholder - further acknowledge that any third party will be able to make their Google Wallet payments if said person has access to a device that supports Google Pay/Google Wallet, a passcode is obtained and/or If its data (Touch ID/Face ID) is also added to the device as authentication data. Sharing the passcode/password to a third party and/or adding the third party's data as authentication data may harm the cardholder.

5^{1.2.4.2} When adding a Card to Google Wallet, the Customer/Additional Cardholder shall ensure that:

5^{1.2.4.3.1} immediately inform the Bank about the loss and/or theft of the Google device and/or the device that supports Google Pay/Google Wallet;

5^{1.2.4.3.2} to immediately inform the Bank about the occurrence of suspicion, if the user believes that an unauthorized person has accessed his device and/or the card data entered in the electronic device.

5^{1.2.4.3.3} immediately notify the Bank of any unexpected interruption in the service of the Google device, which may give rise to suspicion;

5^{1.2.4.3.4} to delete the card and card-related data from Google Wallet, if it gives third parties temporary use and/or ownership of the device in which such card is added.

5^{1.2.4.4} Based on the information received from the client/at the client's request and/or at its own discretion (in accordance with the bank's rules and procedures), in accordance with the rules established by this agreement on card services and the requirements stipulated in this clause, the bank is authorized/obliged to block the card, additional card, card account or /and limit the ability to pay with a card added to Google Wallet if:

5^{1.2.4.4.1} the Bank has a reasonable suspicion of fraud, the client's request has been submitted and/or the client has informed the Bank about one of the circumstances established by clause 5^{1.2.4.3};

5^{1.2.4.4.2} the customer/additional cardholder, while using Google Wallet, violates any of the requirements/conditions established by this Agreement and the rules defined by Google;

5^{1.2.4.4.3} the card/additional card and/or card account will be blocked, the operation of the card/additional card will be suspended and/or their validity period will expire;

5^{1.2.4.4.4} a request to Google and/or the relevant payment system is submitted;

5^{1.2.4.4.5} the agreement signed between the bank and Google on electronic wallet service will be terminated;

5^{1.2.4.4.6} other cases defined by legislation will occur;

5^{1.2.5} Information Collection and Security

5^{1.2.5.1} The client acknowledges and confirms that the bank is authorized to transfer to Google the personal information about the client/additional card holder stored in the bank to the extent necessary for proper use of Google Wallet, provided that the confidentiality of the transmitted information will be preserved (transmitted information may include - information about transactions, indicating the time, place, volume and other details, personal information of the user - name, surname and other identification data and other necessary information that is necessary to provide a full-fledged service). The Bank is also authorized to receive and process from Google the data to which access is necessary to provide a full-fledged service and to fulfill the requirements established by law (information acceptable to the Bank may include - technical data of the device, scope of access, contact information, location of Internet access, IP address and other information necessary for full use of Google Pay/Google Wallet).

5^{1.2.5.2} The client considers and confirms that the bank is authorized to collect and process information related to the client's device (including but not limited to the used application, device, device model, device operating system, IP address, etc.) for the provision of full-value services (payments due process and others), for the purpose of protecting the customer/additional cardholder from data loss, fraud and/or any other risks. Also, for the mentioned purposes and to the appropriate extent, the Bank is authorized to exchange information with Google, provided that the confidentiality of the information will be protected.

5^{1.2.6} Other Terms

- 5^{1.2.6.1} The Client acknowledges that the Bank is not responsible for the improper functioning and/or malfunction of the Google device, the device that supports Google Pay/Google Wallet and/or Google Wallet, and the Bank's obligations are limited to the information relevant to Google. by delivery, if the said malfunction is not caused by the bank;
- 5^{1.2.6.2} The Bank is not responsible for the damage/loss caused to the client using Google Wallet, if it is the result of the said client's unfair action, violation of the terms defined in this agreement and/or Google's terms and conditions.
- 5^{1.2.6.3} When paying with a card added to Google Wallet - the bank may impose additional fee(s), however, the customer considers that the service fee(s) may be charged by the customer's mobile operators (cost of SMS messages or others) and/or by Google itself which are determined independently by the bank, and the bank does not make a decision in this regard.
- 5^{1.2.6.4} The customer/additional cardholder acknowledges that, in accordance with the context, the card added to the Google e-wallet (card account(s)) and the transactions carried out with Google Wallet (including withdrawals using it at an ATM) are fully covered by the same agreement Established rules and conditions regarding bank account services and card services. In case of inconsistency between the rules established by this chapter and the rules of bank account and card services, the rules established by this chapter shall prevail.
- 5^{1.2.6.5} The customer assumes that he is familiar with the terms and conditions established by Google, as well as the privacy protection conditions available on the web pages - https://payments.google.com/payments/apis-secure/get_legal_document?ldo=0&ldt=privacynotice&ldl=en-GB .

10 Deposit

10.1 Service Description

- 10.1.1 Deposit service means the Bank's opening of a deposit account for a client (hereafter – "depositor") on the basis of the application of the depositor and under the respective deposit agreement, commensurate with the procedures and regulations established by Georgian legislation and the Bank, and accrual of the interest rate on the funds deposited at the account.
- 10.1.2 In order to use the deposit, it is mandatory for the depositor to open a current account. The latter is committed not to close the current account at the Bank during the effective term of the deposit. If the current account of the depositor is closed prior to expiration of the effective term of the deposit for any reason, the Bank is authorized to terminate the deposit under regulations determined by the present agreement.
- 10.1.3 By placing a deposit in the deposit account, the Bank assumes the ownership right thereto and undertakes the responsibility to accrue interest and return such in the same currency, according to the regulations and terms established by the agreement. The interest rate accrued to the deposit is accounted for 365 days a year (in a leap year, for 366 days) consistent with the deposit agreement processed between the parties for each particular deposit.
- 10.1.4 Calculation of the interest to be accrued to the deposit commences the day following the date of depositing or transferring the amount in the account, under the regulations determined by the relevant agreement.
- 10.1.5 After expiration of the effective term of the deposit agreement, the Bank shall transfer the deposit amount and the accrued interest to the depositor in the same currency, unless otherwise envisaged by the legislation and the present agreement. If the depositor terminates the deposit prior to the due date, the Bank shall transfer to the latter the amount no later than 5 (five) banking days after receiving the request.
- 10.1.6 Prior to expiration of the effective term of the deposit, the depositor is entitled to mortgage the monetary resources of the deposit account in favor of the Bank to secure those liabilities which have arisen or may arise between the depositor/third person and the Bank.

- 10.1.7 The depositor is obliged to notify the Bank on full or partial withdrawal of the deposit (including by means of telephone, email or internet bank) no later than 5 (five) banking days prior.
- 10.1.8 The Bank is authorized to:
- 10.1.8.1 Dispose the amount accrued on the deposit account on its own behalf and at its own discretion;
- 10.1.8.2 According to the regulations, the amount and the periodicity established by the legislation, in favor of the budget, transfer the income tax for the interest rate accrued on the deposit (if such exists);
- 10.1.8.3 For the purpose of performing obligation(s) deriving from any agreement executed with the Bank or from the legislation, without further consent or permission from the depositor, after such obligation is generated, at any time to exercise non-accepted write-off of amounts from the call deposit of the depositor.
- 10.1.8.4 In the event the term deposit is used by the depositor or other third person to secure liabilities owed to the Bank, prior to expiry of the effective term of the deposit agreement, the Bank shall cover the liabilities owed to the Bank directly from the deposit account, without transferring the amount to the current account of the depositor.
- 10.1.9 If the depositor is represented by a representative in relation with the Bank, the Bank shall not be responsible or the actions (among them withdrawal of the deposit or/and interest) of the representative unless the Bank was first aware of the cancelation of the representation.
- 10.2 Term Deposit
- 10.2.1 A term deposit limits the access of the depositor to the funds placed in the deposit account for the period determined by the agreement. The depositor cannot withdraw the amount or add to the initial balance.
- 10.2.2 The interest rate is accrued on the balance existing in the deposit account.
- 10.2.3 The interest rate accrued on the term deposit is transferred to the respective account at the beginning of the term, monthly or at the end of the term of the deposit, commensurate with the deposit agreement executed between the depositor and the Bank.
- 10.2.4 The Bank is authorized not to allow withdrawal of the deposit amount or its part by the depositor prior to expiry of the effective term of the deposit, unless otherwise established by the relevant agreement.
- 10.2.5 In the event the depositor requests return of the deposit prior to the expiry of the effective term of the deposit and the Bank does not exercise the authority determined in clause 10.2.4., the interest rate shall be accrued on the deposit according to a different (reduced) interest rate determined by the respective agreement. Furthermore, if the depositor has already withdrawn the interest amount, the portion of interest pre-paid from the deposit (the difference between the already received and to be received interest) shall be deducted.
- 10.2.6 If the agreement is terminated prior to date, under the initiative of the Bank or for the reason of a disagreement with the client with the amendments offered by the Bank consistent with clause 18.3, the interest rate shall be accrued on the term deposit commensurate with the actual number of days of using the term deposit, according to the interest amount established by the Bank for the respective period.
- 10.2.7 The Bank is entitled to notify the depositor on expiry of the effective term of the deposit via SMS or in another form envisaged by this agreement. The notification shall be sent to the depositor at the mobile telephone number recorded in the application submitted to the Bank at the moment of the client's opening a deposit. The client is committed to notify the Bank of any change to their number, otherwise the Bank shall bear no responsibility for the consequences.
- 10.3 Accumulative Deposit
- 10.3.1 An accumulative deposit is a term deposit type, with term deposit conditions established by the present agreement as stated above, with the difference that for the accumulative deposit it is possible to add amount however, the amount cannot be withdrawn prior to expiration of the term/termination of the agreement. The accumulative deposit interest rate is transferred to the relevant account after the effective term of the deposit expires.
- 10.4 Demand Deposit (savings deposit)
- 10.4.1 With a demand deposit, the depositor may as necessary dispose the amount existing on the deposit account. The depositor is authorized to withdraw or add amounts to the deposit, under terms envisaged by the respective agreement.
- 10.4.2 The interest rate shall be accrued to the balance existing in the deposit account by the end of each transaction day.
- 10.4.3 It is possible to place/withdraw funds from the demand deposit directly from the deposit account. The amount can be transferred from the demand deposit account only to the client's own account(s).

- 10.4.4 Interest rate accrued on the demand deposit shall be transferred to the account indicated by the depositor once a month, on the last day of each calendar month. The interest rate can be deposited in the deposit account as established by the respective agreement.

10.5. Certificate of Deposit (CD)

- 10.5.1. For the purposes of the present chapter, the terms used in the present agreement and/or in the agreement/covenant processed in its scope/on its basis, unless otherwise deriving from the context or determined by the respective agreements/covenants, shall have the following meanings:

10.5.1.1. Certificate of deposit – a standard and/or non-standard certificate(s) of deposit issued by the Bank in a dematerialized form, determining the commitment of the Bank to pay to the holder of the certificate of deposit, on the day determined by the terms of the certificate of deposit, the amount envisaged by the term of the certificate of deposit (face value);

10.5.1.2. Standard certificate of deposit – a certificate of deposit issued by the bank in accordance with the Order of the President of the National Bank of Georgia N 49/04 dated May 3, 2012 on “Approval of the provisions on standard deposit certificates of the commercial banks”;

10.5.1.3. Non-standard certificate of deposit – a certificate of deposit issued by the bank, which does not correspond with the requirements of the National Bank determined for the standard certificates of deposit;

10.5.1.4. Zero-coupon (discounted) CD – a type of certificate of deposit, if purchased by the client, the settlement amount payable by the client, and envisaged by the terms of the certificate of deposit, shall be determined under the beneficial terms as compared with the face value. The amount of the accruable interest shall be determined by the difference between the face value and the settlement amount (purchase price), which the client shall receive along with the settlement amount paid by them, by the end of the effective term of the certificate of deposit;

10.5.1.5. Coupon (interest bearing) CD – a type of certificate of deposit, if purchased, the client shall pay the settlement amount envisaged by the terms of the certificate of deposit, which represents the face value of the certificate of deposit at the time of the initial placement of the certificate of deposit. For the period determined by the agreement, the interest shall be accrued to the indicated amount, which the client shall receive within the periodicity determined by the terms of certificate of deposit. The face value shall be received by the end of the effective term of the certificate of deposit;

10.5.1.6. Amount of the certificate of deposit (settlement amount) – the amount paid by the holder of the certificate of deposit to purchase the certificate;

10.5.1.7. Face value of the certificate of deposit (face value) – the amount receivable by the holder of the certificate of deposit by the end of the effective term of the certificate of deposit;

10.5.1.8. Registry of the certificate of deposit – electronic database of the Bank issuing the certificate of deposit, where the information determined by the legislation on the certificate of deposit and its owner is recorded;

10.5.1.9. Statement – the document issued by the Bank to the client on the basis of the records stored at the registry of the certificate of deposit, evidencing the fact of certificate holding.

10.5.2 General Terms of Service

10.5.2.1. The terms of issuance of a certificate of deposit are posted on the Bank web-page (www.pashabank.ge) and represent an inseparable part of the respective agreement of the certificate of deposit created between the Bank and the client.

10.5.2.2. On the basis of the present agreement and the respective agreement of the certificate of deposit created between the Bank and the client, the Bank shall provide services to the client related to the purchase/disposal/repurchase/repayment of the certificate of deposit, consistent with the effective agreement and terms stipulated under legislation.

10.5.2.3. Commensurate with the terms of the agreement, a client is authorized to purchase a certificate of deposit from the Bank under the terms defined by the bank. Furthermore, the bank is authorized, at its discretion, to refuse to sell a certificate of deposit to a client.

10.5.2.4. Prior to purchasing a certificate of deposit, the client must maintain an active current account at the Bank by means of which any settlement related to the certificate of deposit shall be effected (among them, purchase, payment of the interest amount, disposal, repurchase).

- 10.5.2.5. The holder of the certificate of deposit grants the right to the Bank to withhold the amount from the current account of the holder of the certificate of deposit in a non-accepted manner and ensure its transfer to the respective bank account.
- 10.5.2.6. A certificate of deposit may exist only in non-material form.
- 10.5.2.7. The Bank is entitled to issue a certificate of deposit with or without the right to call for prior to date, determined by the respective agreement of the certificate of deposit.
- 10.5.2.8. If the certificate of deposit is callable, the Bank is authorized to repurchase the certificate before its due date, consistent with the preliminarily determined call terms, in which case the Bank pays to the client the amount of the certificate of deposit and the interest amount accrued, by the given period.
- 10.5.2.9. If the Bank enforces the call right, the call premium may be determined, the amount of which is defined for each particular case, commensurate with the remaining term of the certificate.
- 10.5.2.10. If the Bank calls for the certificate of deposit, the client must, within 5 (five) business days after receiving the respective call, visit the Bank to carry out the certificate of deposit repurchase operation. If the client does not visit the Bank within the established period, the Bank is authorized to repurchase unilaterally the certificate of deposit and transfer the respective amount to the current account of the holder of the certificate of deposit.
- 10.5.2.11. The Bank is authorized to repurchase the certificate of deposit owned by the client at the price agreed with the client. Furthermore, the Bank is not obliged to repurchase the certificate of deposit prior to the due date.
- 10.5.2.12. The client may use the certificate of deposit as a means of collateral only with the prior written consent from the Bank. Furthermore, the client must, upon use of the certificate of deposit as a means of collateral, transfer to the Bank a document evidencing such.
- 10.5.2.13. In the event the certificate of deposit is used as a means of securing the liabilities assumed by the client and/or any other third person to the Bank, in case of a breach of the assumed liabilities, the Bank is authorized to recover the existing indebtedness from the certificate of deposit by means of a withdrawal in a non-accepted manner, without placing the funds on the current account of the holder of the certificate of deposit.
- 10.5.2.14. After the term indicated in the certificate of deposit expires or after repurchase/call/withdrawal in a non-accepted manner, the certificate of deposit shall be repaid, after which the relevant record of the certificate of deposit shall be revoked and the accrual of interest envisaged by the terms of the certificate of deposit shall cease (if any);
- 10.5.2.15. The Bank shall, upon expiry of the effective term of the certificate of deposit, return to the holder of the certificate of deposit the face value of the certificate and accrued interest (if any), and in case of disposal/repurchase, the agreed price.
- 10.5.2.16. If the date of amount issuance coincides with a non-banking day, the Bank shall ensure issuance of the face value/interest the following banking day.
- 10.5.2.17. Termination of the agreement prior to the date, and a call for the amount of the certificate of deposit from the Bank prior to expiration of the effective term of the certificate of deposit, is not accepted. The agreement can be terminated prior to date only if the Bank repurchases/calls/withdraws in non-accepted manner.
- 10.5.2.18. The client acknowledges that repurchasing/calling of the certificate of deposit is the right of the Bank and not its obligation.
- 10.5.2.19. Unless otherwise determined by the respective agreement, the Bank is authorized, at any time, to amend unilaterally the present terms and/or conditions of issuing a certificate of deposit, commensurate with the changes/regulations/decisions effected by the Bank, amended market terms and/or legislative regulations. The client shall be notified about the changes according to the rule established by the present agreement.
- 10.5.2.20. If the client disagrees with the changes offered by the Bank, the Bank shall redeem the certificate of deposit at the interest rate existing in the respective term.

10.5.3. Accrual of Interest

- 10.5.3.1. The amount of interest effective at the Bank at the moment of entering into the agreement, the rule on its accrual, issuing and disposal, is determined by the terms of the certificate of deposit and the respective agreement.
- 10.5.3.2. The interest rate shall be accrued in the currency of the certificate of deposit. The interest accrual commences from the banking day following the certificate of deposit settlement date and continues through the certificate of deposit deadline.
- 10.5.3.3. Interest is calculated commensurate with the factual days of the term of the certificate of deposit, accounting for 365 (three hundred sixty five) days a year.

10.5.4. Disposal of the Certificate of Deposit

- 10.5.4.1. The holder of the certificate of deposit is authorized to dispose the certificate of deposit following the terms established by the legislation, unless the certificate of deposit is used as a means of securing a bank claim. The Bank is authorized to repurchase the certificate of deposit with priority right.
- 10.5.4.2. A certificate of deposit is disposed without processing additional agreement and the acquisition/disposal of the certificate of deposit by the client is registered at the certificate registry, the regulations and terms of functioning of which are determined by the Bank.
- 10.5.4.3. Disposal of the certificate of deposit by the client is registered at the certificate registry on the basis of a disposal form of the certificate of deposit, jointly submitted to the Bank by the client and the new acquirer of the certificate of deposit, the form and contents of which are determined by the Bank.
- 10.5.4.4. Partial disposal of the certificate of deposit is not accepted.

11 General Terms of Credit Products

- 11.1 On the basis of this agreement, the client may use credit products/credit determined by the Bank.
- 11.2 The general terms of credit relations are outlined in this agreement, the particular terms are determined and regulated under the respective credit product agreement executed between the parties.
- 11.3 If using a revolving credit product (overdraft, installment card, line of credit) the client shall be authorized to cover and utilize again a pre-approved amount, under the regulations and terms established by the respective agreement.
- 11.4 To receive a credit product, the client should address the Bank with an application. Consistent with the regulations of the Bank, acceptance of an application for certain products and consequently of the product is permitted via electronic means of communication (telephone, internet bank, email etc.). The Bank shall review the client's application and shall make a decision to issue or refuse to issue a credit product (the Bank is not obliged to explain the grounds of refusal unless otherwise provided by effective legislation).
- 11.5 The client is authorized to:
- 11.5.1 Fully cover the base amount of the credit determined by the credit product and the accrued interest rate until the date established by the respective agreement, according to the regulations envisaged by the present agreement;
- 11.5.2 Request and in a reasonable period receive exhaustive and complete information on their credit product, namely, credit type, effective interest rate, charges related to taking the credit, penalties, etc.
- 11.6 The client authorizes the Bank, without additional consent from the client, to provide information on the client's liabilities towards the Bank to the client guarantor and/or to any person whose property is used as collateral for the client's liability/liabilities, and/or to give to such persons upon request, copies of the respective agreement(s) executed between the Bank and the client.
- 11.7 Upon receipt of the credit product, the client (borrower) shall be liable to return the respective amount and pay the interest rate according to the terms agreed with the Bank.
- 11.8 The credit amount, interest rate, commission and/or penalty is calculated and paid according to the regulations established by the respective agreement. The Bank may give a schedule to the client, which is a document informative in nature, according to which the client shall pay the base amount of the credit and the interest rate.
- 11.9 In covering the credit product, the amount allocated to the Bank or available in the client's account shall first be used to cover the commission fee (if any), penalty (if any), then the accrued interest rate, base credit amount and finally other expenses (among them insurance, if any). The client authorizes the Bank to change the above indicated sequence unilaterally, at the discretion of the Bank. Also, mentioned rule is applicable to the credits according which the grace period is prescribed.
- 11.10 The interest rate is accrued on the actual debt of the client owed to the Bank, and is calculated according to the actual number of days of using the product for 365 days (in a leap year, 366 days). Under the particular agreement/covenant terms processed on the basis of this agreement, a fixed as well as variable interest rate can be established.
- 11.11 The liabilities of the client, as a rule are covered with the amounts accumulated at his/her account. Furthermore, the client takes into consideration that full pre-payment of credit shall not happen automatically if there is sufficient amount available at his/her account and for the full pre-payment of the loan the client should address the bank consistent with the particular and/or present general agreement provisions.

- 11.12 If the due amount is not paid on time, the client shall be liable to pay the Bank a penalty for the delay, which may include both a fixed and a daily penalty, the amount of which shall be determined under the respective credit product agreement.
- 11.13 The penalty will not be imposed on the credit product if the payment date coincides with a non-banking day. In such cases, the client shall be responsible to deposit the due amount in the relevant account (pay) the following banking day.
- 11.14 The client acknowledges that in the event any kind of public law restriction applies to the amount existing/deposited (paid) to cover credit liabilities, the credit liabilities of the client shall not be deemed as performed to the Bank and the client shall be committed to cover the respective amount under the terms envisaged by the agreement, otherwise the penalty envisaged in clause 11.13 shall be applied to the client for overdue payments.
- 11.15 Unless otherwise determined by the Bank, accrual of the interest rate and the penalty shall continue and shall be subject to payment in case of delaying the credit repayment, notwithstanding the validity or termination of the agreement, until the moment the debt envisaged by the agreement is covered by the client forcedly or voluntarily.
- 11.16 If at the moment of accrual (payment) of the commission and/or penalty, as envisaged by the respective agreement/covenant of the credit product, the legislation establishes a lower rate of commission fee and/or penalty than those determined by the agreement/covenant, the maximum interest rate of the commission fee and/or penalty established by the legislation shall apply (if any).
- 11.17 The client is committed, before making a pre-payment for the base amount of the credit product, accrued interest rate thereto, commission and penalty (if any), also before pre-payment of any other kind of arrears (including full or partial return of the credit and/or before refinancing from other finance organizations), and in case of credit line and overdraft, only before refinancing from the other financial organizations, inform the Bank of the above indicated in writing (material or electronic means). Furthermore, if the amount of credit product and/or overdraft envisaged by the credit agreement, credit line agreement and/or overdraft agreement does not exceed 2,000,000 (two million) GEL or its equivalent in other currency (at the exchange rate of the National Bank of Georgia established by the date of submission of the written application to the Bank), the Bank shall ensure coverage of the above indicated liabilities on the date of submission of the written application or if the written application was submitted on a non-working day, no later than the following banking day. In any other cases, the Bank is authorized to ensure coverage of the above indicated liabilities no later than 14 (fourteen) calendar days after submission of the written application.
- 11.18 Unless otherwise established by the legislation, the bank is authorized, in case of refinancing of the bank product issued by it or pre-payment from own resources of the client, to charge and request the client, in addition to repayment of the remaining base amount, to pay commission and/or penalty, taking into account remaining term of the agreement as of the moment of pre-payment of the due amount, according to the following rule:
- 11.8.1 For financial products with the fixed interest rate:
- a. if 6 to 12 months are left before the end of the agreement – not more than 0.5% of the amount designated for the base net amount of credit as of the moment of payment;
 - b. 12 to 24 months are left before the end of the agreement – not more than 1% of the amount designated for the base net amount of credit as of the moment of payment;
 - c. if more than 24 months are left before the end of the agreement, not more than 2% of the amount designated for the base net amount of credit as of the moment of payment;
- 11.8.2 For the financial products with variable interest rate:
- a. if 6 to 24 months are left before the end of the agreement – not more than 0.5% of the amount designated for the base net amount of credit as of the moment of payment;
 - b. if more than 24 months are left before the end of the agreement, not more than 1% of the amount designated for the base net amount of credit as of the moment of payment;
- 11.8.3 For the financial products with indexed interest rate – if more than 6 months are left before the end of the agreement, not more than 0.5% of the amount designated for the base net amount of credit as of the moment of payment;”
- 11.19 The Bank shall not charge commission fee set forth in clause above, in case:

- a. up to 6 months are left before the end of the agreement;
 - b. refinancing of the bank product is fully or partially done through the new credit product issued by JSC Pasha Bank Georgia;
 - c. credit product is pre-paid upon request of the bank;
 - d. In case of pre-payment of the credit product or refinancing that is made because of amendments provided by the bank itself as a result of non-acceptance to the amendment by the guarantor/joint guarantor/owner of the collateral (this request does not apply if the existing index was canceled for the reason independent from the financial organization and the index is substituted).
 - e. credit is covered in the scope of the insurance agreement (if any) processed for securing credit repayment;
 - f. overdraft is pre-paid
- 11.20 In case of submitting an application on pre-payment of the credit to the Bank, the client/borrower shall be obliged to submit to the Bank any information/document which directly or indirectly provides the opportunity to prove the fact of credit refinancing or disproves the fact of credit refinancing.
- 11.21 In the event the relevant credit terms envisage a refinancing commission fee and the Bank suspects that re-financing is taking place, the Bank shall be entitled to request from the client/borrower additionally at any time after receiving the application of the client/borrower on pre-payment of the credit, submission of any information/document related to refinancing of the credit, no later than 2 (two) banking days after the request was made.
- 11.22 Direct and/or indirect pre-payment (earlier than the agreed date) of the credit received from JSC PASHA Bank Georgia personally and/or by means of the other person(s) using the amount issued by any financial institutes (commercial bank, micro finance organization, credit union and/or other person) directly and/or indirectly, and/or by means of other person(s) shall be deemed as credit refinancing.
- 11.23 The parties agree that:
- 11.23.1 The Bank is not obliged to prove the fact of re-financing and reserves the right, in case of receiving credit refinancing information from any sources, to make a decision to impose the relevant commission fee and/or penalty on the client/borrower, meaning that the responsibility of proving the fact of absence of refinancing is borne by the client/borrower;
- 11.23.2 The amount of commission fee and/or penalty for pre-payment and refinancing is determined by the agreement executed with the client/borrower, although it should not exceed the limits established by the legislation;
- 11.23.3 In the event the client/borrower proves the fact of absence of refinancing by means of addressing the court, the Bank shall be obliged to return only the commission fee and/or penalty debited by means of the non-accepted method, and the client/borrower cancels the request to compensate the damage incurred as a result of Bank actions (by breaching the present contractual obligations by the Bank).
- 11.24 The Bank is entitled to:
- 11.24.1 In order to make a decision on credit issuance and/or for performance of the obligations assumed by the client towards the Bank (among them to return the credit), request and receive any kind of personal information stored with third person(s) or at administrative bodies about the client;
- 11.24.2 For the purpose of performing any assumed obligation, at any time after such obligation is originated, without further approval of the client, write-off the amount (non-accepted method) from any account of the client, including from the available balance of the overdraft and/or credit line. In the event the overdue payment is registered in a currency different from the currency existing in the account, the equivalent shall be determined by the commercial exchange rate established by the Bank at the moment of writing-off the amount by the Bank.
- 11.24.3 Transfer the payable service fee owed by the client to the National Agency of the Public Registry, Service Agency of the Ministry of Internal Affairs, insurance organization and/or other administrative bodies and/or other kinds of payables related to credit issuance, without the further consent of the client, in a non-accepted method to the account of the respective person from any account of the client;
- 11.24.4 For the purpose of paying the amount to the person from whom the client purchases an item with the credit issued by the Bank or receives a service, to deduct the relevant amount from any account of the client without the further consent of the client (non-accepted method), if necessary make a conversion, transfer the amount to the GEL account of the client and transfer to the account of the respective person;

- 11.24.5 Not issue and/or temporarily restrict issuance of credit, if the client and/or the owner of the collateral have legal restrictions, among them tax foreclosure/hypothecation and/or there is any kind of restriction registered to the property of the client and/or collateral (including intangible assets, account(s)).
- 11.24.6 In case client fails to repay the credit, accrued interest, penalty (if any) to the bank within the agreed term and/or any commission determined by the bank and/or client has any liability owed to the bank, for the purposes to ensure performance of respective liability/liabilities the bank shall:
- 11.24.6.1 Request to direct enforcement to any property of the client (any item owned by the client and intangible assets, including accounts) disregarding whether the client's liability (Bank request) is secured or not with the property right (hypothecation/mortgage). Furthermore, the Bank is authorized, at its own discretion, to direct enforcement/payment firstly to that item or intangible asset of the client which does not represent the object of collateral for the client's liabilities;
- 11.24.6.2 Request takeover of the mortgage and/or hypothecation object and after assigning the item directly, accept the hypothecation and/or mortgage object into ownership or use other enforcement regulation envisaged by the Civil Code. If, at the moment the Bank (as a mortgagor) receives the hypothecation and/or mortgage object into ownership or sells it, the value of hypothecation and/or mortgage property is less than the amount of secured request, or if the amount received as a result of selling the hypothecation and/or mortgage object is not sufficient to fully cover the secured request, the secured request shall be deemed as met only with the amount equaling to the hypothecation and/or mortgage item value or the amount received from the sale of hypothecation and/or mortgage object;
- 11.24.7 Terminate credit relations with the client and/or any, several or all additional agreements/covenants, and/or request the client to return the base amount of the credit along with the accrued interest rate and penalty (if any) in the event any of the below listed circumstances are present:
- 11.24.7.1 The client breaches any liability assumed under the present agreement, any agreement/covenant executed on the basis/under this agreement or under any document processed with the Bank, including if any condition precedent, supplementary term and/or request of the Bank to the client is not met (breached);

12¹. Right to Withdraw from Remote Banking Products/Services (Agreement)

- 12¹.1. This clause defines the rules and conditions for the Client's right to withdraw from remote banking products or services (hereinafter „withdrawal right“), which are agreed upon or contracted between the Bank and the Client through remote communication channels (hereinafter "Remote Banking Products/Services").
- 12¹.2. The Client has the right to withdraw from the agreement on Remote Banking Products/Services, without any reason, within 14 (fourteen) calendar days from the date of the agreement or receipt of the service.
- 12¹.3. The Client must clearly and unambiguously notify the Bank of their intention to exercise the right to withdraw from the agreement, no later than 14 (fourteen) calendar days from the date of the agreement or receipt of the service. This notification can be submitted through one of the following channels: internet/mobile banking; in writing (at any branch/service center of the Bank); or by calling the telephone service center at (+995 32) 222 25 25 | *2525.

- 12¹.4. The withdrawal notification must specify which remote banking product/service the Client is withdrawing from. Additionally, the Bank has the right to request, and the Client is obligated to provide within a reasonable time, any information/documentation related to the use of the remote banking product/service the Client is withdrawing from.
- 12¹.5. The Client is obliged to return to the Bank any property/money received under the agreement immediately upon sending the notification of withdrawal from the agreement, but in any case no later than 30 (thirty) calendar days from the date of sending such notification. The Client may be required to reimburse expenses incurred by the Bank in accordance with the agreement, proportionate to the services actually provided by the Bank before the Client exercised the right to withdraw and before the return of the received property/money. Additionally, the Bank has the right to charge the Client for any costs incurred by the Bank on behalf of third parties.
- 12¹.6. The Bank is obliged to refund the Client any amount paid for the Remote Banking Product/Service, excluding administrative costs and costs for services actually rendered (proportionate to the period of service). The refund will be made no later than 30 (thirty) calendar days from the date of receipt of the withdrawal notification, but not before the Client fulfills the obligations outlined in clauses 12¹.4 and 12¹.5.
- 12¹.7. In the event of withdrawal by the Client, the agreement will be considered terminated once the requirements specified in clauses 12¹.4, 12¹.5, and 12¹.6 are fully fulfilled.
- 12¹.8. If the Client fails to properly fulfill the obligations specified in clauses 12¹.4 and 12¹.5, the contractual relationship will continue under the original terms of the agreement, and the right to withdraw will be considered not exercised.
- 12¹.9. If the Client and the Bank have mutual financial obligations and claims, the Bank is authorized to offset these obligations and claims. This means that any amount the Client owes to the Bank can be deducted from the amount the Bank owes to the Client as a result of exercising the right to withdraw from the agreement.
- 12¹.10. The provisions related to the right to withdraw from the agreement do not apply to specific financial products (such as credit, overdraft, credit card, etc.). The right to withdraw from such agreements (if applicable) is regulated by individual agreements signed with the Client.
- 12¹.11. The right to withdraw does not apply to banking products/services related to:
- 12¹.11.1. Currency exchange;
 - 12¹.11.2. Money market instruments;
 - 12¹.11.3. Tradable securities;
 - 12¹.11.4. Rights issued by an investment fund;
 - 12¹.11.5. Futures, including equivalent instruments settled in cash;
 - 12¹.11.6. Forward rate agreements (FRAs);
 - 12¹.11.7. Swaps on interest rates, currency, and capital;
 - 12¹.11.8. Options to acquire or dispose of any instruments specified in this clause, including equivalent instruments settled in cash, as well as currency and interest rate options;
 - 12¹.11.9. Documentary operations (letters of credit, documentary collections, bank guarantees, acceptances, etc.);
 - 12¹.11.10. Escrow accounts;
 - 12¹.11.11. Factoring operations;
 - 12¹.11.12. Agreements that have been fully performed at the explicit and unequivocal request of the Client before the right of withdrawal was exercised;
 - 12¹.11.13. Deposit agreements.

13 Responsibilities of the Parties

- 13.1 For failure or undue performance of the liabilities assumed under the present agreement, the parties shall bear responsibility under the present agreement and the regulations established by the effective Georgian legislation.
- 13.2 The client is prohibited to use services envisaged by the present agreement in a way incompatible with the law.

- 13.3 The Bank is accountable to the client for accurate and timely performance of bank transactions. In the event the payment transaction is performed intentionally incorrectly, or by the act of guilt on behalf of the Bank, the latter shall pay a penalty to the amount of 0.1% of the respective amount for each overdue day, or at the amount determined by the legislation.
- 13.4 The Bank is responsible for all risks associated with sending a payment instrument and/or its personalized security specifications and means;
- 13.5 The Bank shall bear no responsibility for:
- 13.5.1 Any damage, among it to third persons, incurred as a result of a breach of any term of the present agreement, and/or agreement/covenant processed on its basis, by the client;
- 13.5.2 Outcomes (including those incurred as a result of failure of the client to perform their obligations towards any person), provided that they are caused by:
- 13.5.2.1 Performing a transaction on the client's order;
- 13.5.2.2 Inaccuracy of the information provided by the client to the Bank (including information provided in the payment order or any document submitted to the Bank), incorrect and/or incomplete filling of an application and/or statement;
- 13.5.2.3 Non exercising of the rights granted to the client under the agreement;
- 13.5.2.4 Malfunctioning of the computer, telephone device and/or other devices (or their parts and accessories) owned by the client or any other person, program application, due to the internet provider, telecommunications operator and/or any other person;
- 13.5.2.5 Any action of the recipient bank and/or intermediary bank recorded in the data provided by the client to the Bank and/or for any other reason not attributed to the Bank;
- 13.5.2.6 Any restriction which is established on the territory of the state where the addressee serving the bank and/or intermediary bank is located, which restricts and/or fully blocks receipt of the money;
- 13.5.2.7 Deriving from the requirements established for the transfer transaction and/or transferrable money and/or its portion, prevention of facilitation of illegitimate revenue legalization, financing of terrorism, "agreement between the Government of Georgia and US Government to improve the international payment obligations and enforce foreign account tax consistency act (FACTA)" and/or blocking, debiting or other reasons;
- 13.5.2.8 Refusal of the correspondent bank (by means of which the transfer is done) to perform a transaction and/or for the delay of a transaction performance/completion;
- 13.5.2.9 Failure to perform or incorrectly perform a payment order, caused by the provision of inaccurate data by the client in the payment order;
- 13.5.2.10 The results coming from a client's rejection of the security measures offered by the Bank. In such circumstances, the client shall be fully responsible.
- 13.6 The Bank is responsible for the correct performance of the payment order initiated by the client, unless the circumstances envisaged in clause 13.5.2.9 are present, or the Bank has correctly indicated the requisites of the recipient and the recipient provider has received the payment transaction amount (the Bank has deposited the amount indicated in the payment order in the recipient provider's account).
- 13.7 If the Bank has correctly performed the payment order of the client, in such case the recipient's provider is responsible for the accuracy of the payment transaction to the client and/or recipient.
- 13.8 If the Bank, against the requirements of clause 13.6, has inaccurately performed the payment order, it is obliged to refund the client the incorrectly transferred funds and the commission fee related to this transaction.
- 13.9 If the client is the recipient and the Bank is responsible for the incorrect performance of the payment transaction, commensurate with clauses 13.6-13.8 of this agreement, the Bank shall transfer the amount to the account of the client.
- 13.10 The client is entitled to request the Bank to reimburse the relevant amount of an unauthorized or incorrectly performed transaction, consistent with the provisions of the present clause, provided that no more than 40 days have passed since the date of the unauthorized transaction or no more than 180 days have passed since the date of the incorrectly performed transaction, and the client notified the Bank about said unauthorized or incorrectly performed transaction shortly after receiving the information about it.
- 13.11 If the client declared the unauthorized or incorrectly performed payment transaction after the respective term established in clause 13.10 has passed, after such a term, the Bank shall, within the scope of its capabilities, assist the client to get back the unauthorized or incorrectly transferred amount. The present clause does not stand as a claim from the client towards the Bank to request compensation of damage, return the amount or the performance of other actions from the Bank by means of a court order.

- 13.12 The Bank, consistent with the requirements of the present clause, is obliged to reimburse the client the amount of the unauthorized payment transaction, unless otherwise established by clause 13.14. The compensation amount owed to the client shall be determined consistent with clause 13.13.
- 13.13 The client is responsible for the damage incurred by misappropriation or illegitimate use of stolen or lost payment instrument as a result of an unauthorized transaction throughout the territory of Georgia, not exceeding 100 GEL, unless otherwise established by clause 13.14. For the purposes of this clause, a transaction performed by means of the internet throughout the territory of Georgia shall be deemed as performed, provided that it has been effected by means of the payment instrument issued in Georgia and the internet page belongs to the citizen of Georgia, legal entity registered in Georgia or another organizational formation envisaged by Georgian legislation which is not a legal entity.
- 13.14 The client is fully responsible for any damage associated with an unauthorized payment transaction coming as a result of an act of guilt on their part, also for failure to perform the obligations set forth in clause 12.1.14 intentionally or due to negligence.
- 13.15 The client shall bear no responsibility for a stolen, lost, misappropriated or illegitimately used payment instrument, or for the damage incurred as a result of disregard of the security measures or personified security means of the payment instrument, provided that:
- 13.15.1 The transaction has been performed consistent with the terms of the agreement after the Bank received notification, provided that such damage is not caused by an act of guilt or intended action on the part of the client;
- 13.15.2 The Bank has not ensured receipt of the notification if such damage is not attributed to the guilty or intended action of the client.

14 Statements and Guarantees of the Parties

- 14.1 The parties hereby state and guarantee that they shall carry out their activities legitimately, in good faith and following high ethical standards.
- 14.2 The client declares and acknowledges that:
- 14.2.1 Their signing of an application, information and documents submitted by them signifies they are true, accurate and exhaustive. The action of the client is not aimed at deceiving the Bank. 15¹. Anti-Bribery, Tax Evasion and Anti-Corruption Policy

15^{1.1} The Client declares and guarantees that:

15^{1.1.1} The Client shall conduct its activities and relationships in good faith and lawful conduct, observing high standards of ethics. The Client has zero tolerance policy towards corruption, bribery. Tax fraud, tax evasion and any other kind of criminal acts and keep the above-mentioned issues under permanent control.

15^{1.1.2} The Client shall not participate in any activities, which may mean to facilitate of (direct or indirect) corruption, tax fraud and tax evasion in any form, offer, receive, deliver, issue or request gifts, hospitality, awards and other intangible assets, (either directly or indirectly), to create any kind of commercial, contractual, regulatory or personal preferences and/or encourage or reward any illegal and unethical behavior;

15^{1.1.3} The Client has not been found guilty and/or accused in corruption, tax fraud and facilitation of tax evasion cases.

15^{1.1.4} The Client during setting up the Agreement, has not, directly or indirectly, paid, received, been involved in any transaction, according to which any illegal and/or hidden fees, bribe and/or compensation should be paid or received;

15^{1.1.5} A breach of any provision of the above Policy may lead to the termination of both this contract and any previous agreement/agreement made in future between the Parties. Depending on the seriousness of violations of the above guarantees, the Bank has the right to demand that the Client provide its statements and records.

16 Force-Majeure Circumstances

16.1 Parties shall be exempt from the liability arising from full or partial failure to perform contractual obligations during the effect of an insurmountable force [force majeure], provided that such failure is caused by the direct impact of the insurmountable force. A force majeure shall include circumstances which did not exist at the time the present agreement was created and the parties were not in a position to prevent or overcome such occurrence or impact. In particular: natural disasters, fire, strike, military action, blockade, malfunctioning of devices, damage of program software, adoption of legal acts which make it impossible to perform contractual obligations, etc.

16.2 If any of the above indicated circumstances have a direct impact on the effective terms of performance of the assumed contractual obligations, in such case, the performance of the assumed liabilities shall be deferred until liquidation of the force-majeure circumstances.

16.3 The party which is facing the force-majeure circumstances is obliged to notify the other party within a reasonable term, but no later than 5 (five) banking days, about the relevant force-majeure circumstance(s) and its/their presumable duration, otherwise, they shall lose the right to allege the presence of a force-majeure as a ground for exemption from liability.

16.4 With regard to the force-majeure circumstance(s) referred to in the notification, unless they are not generally acknowledged facts (circumstances) or the other party doubts their authenticity, within 30 (thirty) calendar days after receiving the notice of the force-majeure circumstance(s) by the respective party, or after the sending of a notice by the respective party on expression of doubt about the presence of force-majeure circumstance(s) to the other party, the existence of the force-majeure circumstance(s) should be validated by the authorized body determined by the legislation.

16.5 If the effect of force-majeure continues longer than 30 (thirty) calendar days from the date of receipt of the notice on force-majeure circumstance(s) by the respective party, or the conclusions of the respective body on the presence of force-majeure circumstance(s), 15 (fifteen) calendar days after passing the indicated 30 (thirty) calendar days, the parties should decide the fate of the agreement, otherwise any party to the agreement shall be authorized to terminate the agreement, according to the regulation determined by this agreement.

- 17.1⁴. The client is committed, if requested by the Bank, to pay additional costs for the investigation of a problem established by the Bank in the payment system.
- 17.1⁵. The Client has the the right to submit a complaint against the bank to the Dispute Resolution Commission of the National Bank of Georgia (hereinafter referred to as the Commission) only if the complaint submitted to the bank in accordance with Clause 17.1¹. is not satisfied (including without reply) or satisfied partially, within the term established by the same Clause. The Client in accordance with this clause shall have the right to apply to the Commission if the value of the subject of the dispute stipulated in the complaint does not exceed GEL 50,000 or the equivalent of GEL 50,000 in foreign currency. The Client has the right to appeal to the court without appealing to the commission. (Effective from 1 December 2023).
- 17.1⁶. In the case stipulated in p. 17.1⁵. of this agreement, the Client has the right to apply to the commission with a claim to the bank not later than 6 months from the date of the submission of the claim to the Bank. (Effective from 1 December 2023).
- 17.1⁷. The Commission reviews complaints free of charge.(Effective from 1 December 2023).
- 17.2 Any dispute between the parties is resolved by negotiations. In case of failure to come up with resolution, the dispute shall be resolved consistent with this Article:
- 17.2.1. This General Agreement is governed by Georgian law. Any disagreement and dispute between the parties shall be settled on the basis of negotiations. In case of failure to reach an agreement, the dispute shall be settled by the common courts of Georgia in accordance with this article.
- 17.2.2 A notice sent by the Bank regarding the fulfillment of obligations and the granting of an additional term shall be considered delivered by sending it to the e-mail address specified in this agreement.

- 17.2.3 The Client shall immediately notify the Bank of any changes or additions made to the information that he/she has submitted to the Bank, and to the documents he/she has submitted, including concerning the change of contact details (legal/actual address, telephone number, e-mail, etc.); Otherwise, the notice/warning sent to the contact address that is known to the bank will be considered delivered. Also, he/she shall keep the necessary equipment and network for communication (including mobile phone, computer, Internet) in good working/switched on condition. Otherwise, the bank shall not be liable for the consequences/damage caused by this;
- 17.2.4. The Bank shall have the right to apply to the notary to request the issuance of a writ of execution on the basis of this Agreement and/or any document executed based on it and/or to satisfy the timely demand for payment of arrears arising in connection with such documents, which means that the bank is entitled to satisfy the claim arising on the basis of this Agreement and/or any document executed under it, by the compulsory execution of the writ of execution issued by a notary.
- 17.3. The information placed on the web-site of the Bank, the information protected in the Bank's database (in computer programs) as well as electronic and printed out copies of the information prepared by the Bank and signed by the director of the Bank or his/her lawful representative shall have evidentiary power for the purposes of confirming the existence/nonexistence of the facts related to this Agreement.
- 17.4. In case of discrepancy with the other agreements previously processed with regard to the subject matter of this agreement, the present agreement shall prevail.

18 Final Provisions

- 18.1 The present agreement shall be put into effect as of the moment of approving the application indicated in clause 2.3 by the Bank and is effective for an infinite term.
- 18.2 Unless otherwise determined by the particular agreement/covenant, the present agreement and/or any agreement/covenant processed on its basis/in its scope, shall be terminated:
- 18.2.1 When the events set forth by the present agreement occur and/or in cases envisaged by the legislation;
- 18.2.2 Upon agreement by the parties;
- 18.2.3 By the sending of a notice of termination by one party to the other, 1 (one) month in advance, upon the initiative of either party. Furthermore, in the event of termination of the agreement, the client is committed to fully cover any kind of debt owed to the Bank within 5 (five) calendar days after receiving notification.
- 18.3 The Bank reserves the right to make amendments and modifications to the contents/terms of the present agreement and/or agreement/covenant processed/to be processed on the basis of the present agreement, also to change/establish any commission fee by posting on the official web page of the Bank www.rebank.ge or at the branches/service centers of the Bank, two (2) months prior, in case the amendments are related to the significant terms of the agreement and one (1) month prior, in case the amendment are made to the price of other financial product, to their enforcement/implementation (except the cases prescribed by legislation). The notification is also permitted in any form envisaged by clause 18.4 of the present agreement. The client is entitled before 1 (one) or 2 (two) months expires (according that which of the terms are amended - significant terms or other terms on price increase of other financial product), at any time, to terminate the agreement/covenant and pay the Bank any due payables/debts in full (except when the client has the obligation to keep the current account for the same effective term of the agreement as provided in another agreement processed between the Bank and the client). Otherwise, the changes (amendments) offered by the Bank shall be deemed as accepted by the client and the agreement/covenant shall be deemed as amended consistent with the offered terms. The Bank does not have the obligation envisaged by this clause, when the agreement terms/commission fee change in favor of the client, also to that new service, which does not substitute and/or change the payment service(s) envisaged by the present agreement. Amendment of the agreement by the Bank in favor of the client does not require the consent of the client, any kind of approval by the latter and/or the sending of any notification to such client. The client may rely on any amendment made in favor of the client solely when the Bank officially and in a written form approves the relevant agreement modifications. The client, at any time, has the right to request information from the Bank on modifications to the agreement terms in their favor. Any change made in favor of the client, upon the decision of the Bank, shall be put into effect immediately or from the date determined by the Bank.

- 18.4 Any official communication between the parties shall be made in writing. Sending notification by the bank by means of internet banking and/or email shall be equal to the written form of communication. Also, notification can be sent by means of SMS. Written notification should be delivered to the party at the last address known to the notification sender.
- 18.5 Receipt of the notification under the present agreement and/or agreement/covenant processed on its basis, other than directly envisaged cases, shall be deemed as delivered:
- 18.5.1 On the date of its receipt by the addressee, provided that acceptance of notification is confirmed by the addressee (including by means of electronic document, receipt, other means of notification, etc.);
- 18.5.2 If the receipt of the notification is not confirmed by the addressee, any such notification shall be deemed as duly sent and received by the addressee:
- 18.5.2.1 By means of courier or post when sending written notification – a. if the notification is sent by the Bank, within 3 calendar days after sending or on the delivery confirmation date (whichever occurs first), b. if the notification is sent by the client, on the banking day following the notification being registered at the bank chancellery.
- 18.5.2.2 When the Bank sends a notification by means of the internet bank, the notification shall be deemed as delivered within 3 days after the sending date, notwithstanding when the client actually sees the notification. The client is obliged, regularly, at least once a month, to check for notifications received via internet bank.
- 18.5.2.3 When sending via email, SMS and/or other electronic means – a. if the notification is sent by the Bank, on the second banking day after the sending date; b. if the notification is sent by the client, from the date of confirming receipt of notification by the Bank.
- 18.6 If notification is sent by the Bank, it shall be deemed as received in cases when the party sending the notification receives notification if the addressee does not reside at the indicated address/provided in the contact data, or if the addressee refuses to receive the notification or refuses to acknowledge its receipt.
- 18.7 The parties shall communicate via the address/contact data determined by the agreement and/or by the agreement/covenant processed on its basis or at any other address/contact data which is notified in writing by one party to another (including by email), as well as at any other address(es) of the client known to the Bank. The parties shall, in case of a change of addresses or any of their data, timely inform the other party, otherwise, communication made by the party via the indicated address (sending of notifications) shall be deemed as duly accomplished.
- 18.8 The numbering of the titles and phrases of the present agreement and/or agreement/covenant processed on its basis shall be conventional. The purpose of the numbering is to systematize the document and ensure its legibility, and this shall not affect the interpretation of the terms of the present agreement and/or the entire agreement. The terms used in singular tense shall imply those in plural tense and vice versa.
- 18.9 If any of the clauses of the agreement and/or agreement/covenant processed on its basis is invalidated, this shall not affect the validity of the remainder of the clauses of the agreement/covenant. Instead of an invalidated clause, that clause shall be used which will better ensure the achievement of the goal envisaged by the respective agreement.
- 18.10 The client is not entitled, without prior written consent from the Bank, to concede their contractual rights and/or obligations to (a) third person(s) fully or partially. This does not exclude the right of the Bank, at its own discretion, to accept the carrying out of liabilities envisaged by the agreement/covenant.
- 18.11 The Bank is authorized at any time to concede/assign the rights and/or liabilities determined by the present agreement and/or by the agreement/covenant processed on its basis to third persons at any time.
- 18.12 The terms of the present agreement and/or of the agreement/covenant processed on its basis are fully applicable to the legal successors/heirs of the parties.
- 18.13 While regulating those issues not envisaged by this agreement, the parties abide by the effective legislation of Georgia.
- 18.14 The terms of the present agreement shall prevail over any agreement and covenant previously processed between the parties on the same matter.
- 18.15 The present agreement is made in the English language, the terms of which are posted on the Bank's web page: www.rebank.ge. Upon request, the client shall receive a signed counterpart. The text of the present agreement in the Georgian language is also posted on the same bank web page. In case of a discrepancy between the texts, the agreement executed in the Georgian language and its terms shall prevail over texts composed in any other languages.
